

STEVE NIEVE AND KESSADA INVITE YOU TO “STORIES OF LOVE” - WITH SONGS BY TOM WAITS, NEIL YOUNG, ELVIS COSTELLO AND US.

Steve Nieve member of the rock and roll hall of fame, and a Grammy winning Artist, has been playing keyboards for Elvis Costello for more than thirty years, firstly as a member of The Attractions, and in more recent times with The Imposters. Perhaps the most intimate and riveting performances, however, were those where Elvis and Steve toured together creating a spellbinding tour-de-force of piano, guitar and voice. Anybody who has witnessed these or indeed any of Elvis Costello's live shows will appreciate the special magic that occurs when Steve Nieve is let loose to solo on the piano.

Get to experience a full evening of this magic as Steve and his incredibly talented friend, vocalist and drummer Kessada, bring you “STORIES OF LOVE” secrets and unexpected anecdotes abound when the Immobile Tour arrives in your home-town. After one hundred plus shows since the pandemic began, on Facebook and Instagram, you already know to expect the unexpected from this musical pair of lunatics. Kessada, formerly known as Ajuq featured recently on Elvis Costello's highly acclaimed “Clockface” album, both as drummer and vocal support. He also featured on the special french language release EP “La Face de Pendule a Coucou” with Isabelle Adjani, Etta Somatis, Tshegue and Iggy Pop.

Attend “STORIES OF LOVE” and you will hear songs and anecdotes around Elvis Costello, Neil Young, and Tom Waits. Naturally, Kessada and Steve will also dig deep into their own growing catalogue of songs. A wonderful evening of words and music around the legendary piano of Steve (Professor) Nieve, with the young and energetic voice of Kessada.

A great new concert to discover.

